

Questions – Mauril Belanger/National Anthem

Canada has English and French anthems which share the same title and music, but have different words. The English O Canada was first written in 1908. The following questions ask about the English version of O Canada.

Are you aware that the English O Canada was changed in 1913?

- Yes
- No
- Don't Know

The original English Anthem uses the word US, the current version uses THY SONS. Which version do you believe is most appropriate?

- Original anthem which uses US
- Current version that uses thy sons
- Undecided

There is a Private Members Bill in the House of Commons to restore the meaning of the original English Anthem. Do you agree or disagree that we should restore the original meaning and use the words "in all of us command" instead of the words "in all thy sons command" in the English O Canada?

- Strongly agree
- Somewhat agree
- Neither agree nor disagree
- Somewhat disagree
- Strongly disagree

Almost done. Just two final demographic questions.

- Male
- Female

- Under 35 years old
- Between 35 and 49
- Between 50 and 64
- 65 or older